

2259
Schonberg

59

Articles of War

Agreed upon
Between his Grace the Duke of Schonberg, and Teige O
Reigon, for the

Surrender of Charlemont,

The Twelfth of May, 1690.

That all the Garrison, viz. Governour, Officers, Souldiers, Gunners, and all other Inhabitants, (the Deserters only excepted, who run from us, since the first day of September last) and all other Persons in the said Garrison, shall have their Lives secured, and march out with their Arms, Bag and Baggage, Drums beating, Colours flying, Match lighted, Bullets in their Mouths, each Officer and Souldier twelve Charges of Powder, with Match and Ball proportionable, and their Horses, without any molestation in their Bodies, or Goods now in their possession, not belonging to the Stores, upon any pretence whatsoever.

That the said Garrison may march the nearest way to Dundalk, and not be compelled to march above eight or nine miles a day.

That the sick and wounded Officers and Souldiers, and other Persons that are not able to march at present, may remain within the said Garrison till able to march, and then to have a Pass to go to K. James's next Garrison.

That none of the Army under our Command shall enter the said Fort, except such who are appointed by us to take possession of the same, till the Garrison be clear marched out of the Gate.

That there shall be a sufficient Escourt appointed for the said Garrison, to convoy them to the place before-mentioned.

That they shall deliver wholly and fully, without any Embezelment or Diminution, all the Stores belonging to the said Fort, and that an Officer shall be immediately admitted into the Fort, to take a Remain of the same.

That the Fort shall be put into the possession of such Forces, as we shall think fit at eight of the Clock, on Wednesday next, being the fourteenth of this instant May, at which hour the said Garrison shall march out, and an hour before, the outward Gate shall be delivered to such Forces as we shall appoint, in case a Supply of one Months Provision for 800 men be not brought into the Garrison, for the Relief between the signing hereof, and the said time.

That the above-mentioned Articles shall be inviolably performed on both sides, without any equivocation, mental reservation, or fraud whatsoever, according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

Lastly, That all Acts of Hostility shall cease betwixt the said Garrison and Army, so soon as notice can be given on both sides.

Edinburgh, Re-printed by the Heir of Andrew Anderson,
By Order, Anno Dom.

4

✓ to 25.07.82

0-11T Inc. (Solely owned by Mr. [redacted])

[Faint, illegible text]

1890

[The page contains extremely faint, illegible text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

[Faint, illegible handwritten text]

The following information was obtained from the records of the [redacted] Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, regarding the [redacted] land grant.

[The remainder of the page contains extremely faint, illegible text.]

1907-1908

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which are arranged in a columnar format. The names are written in a cursive script, and the addresses are written in a more formal, printed style. The list includes names such as "John Smith", "Mary Jones", and "Robert Brown", along with their respective addresses in various cities and states.

1000

15

1891

74-100000

[Faint, illegible handwritten text]